An Oklahoma City Resource Guide

Compiled September 2023

"Compassion isn't just about feeling the pain of others; it's about bringing them in toward yourself. If we love what God loves, then, in compassion, margins get erased.

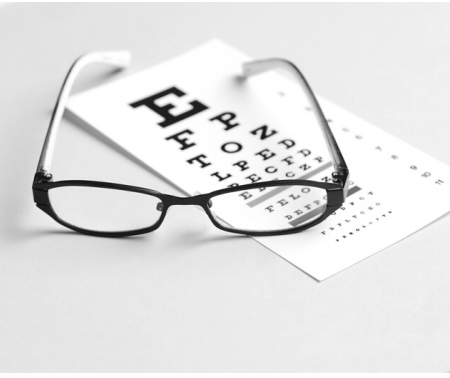

'Be compassionate as God is compassionate,' means the dismantling of barriers that exclude."

Resources

It is our hope that this guide will help us all better navigate the resources available for our neighbors, ultimately supporting them in their goals for housing, health and employment stability. These resources were available as of the time we went to print, September 2023. Because we will be adding resources as they become available (and we become aware of them), please visit www.citycareokc.org/resourceguide for real-time updates and additions.

"Rather, it is participating in the shepherding of others, the creation of new things or finding new ways to use the things that God made for us. You can participate fully in the work of God while mending a wound, harvesting food, or answering phones"

Acknowledgements

We would like to extend our utmost gratitude to all the faith communities, nonprofits, staff and volunteers who work tirelessly to ease the suffering of their neighbors. We are inspired and buoyed by the creativity and compassion you dedicate to this work. And to these fine folks:

Deacon Kori Hall
Dean Katie Churchwell
Father Nathan Carr
Reverend Lori Walke
Reverend Sarah Smith

...for your willingness to share your time to building a collaborate network of caretakers and helpers, believing that we are truly better together, we offer one million thanks.
